

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

Allium siculum

[Synonyms : Allium dioscoridis, Nectaroscordum siculum]

HONEY GARLIC is a bulbous perennial. Native to France and Italy, it has small hanging, maroon-striped, nearly white to dark red-flushed flowers.

It is also known as Hajulaukka (Finnish), Honey lily, and Sicilian honey garlic.

Siculum means 'of or from Sicily'.