

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

---

Arnoseris pusilla

SWINE SUCCORY is an annual. Native to Europe it has yellow flowers. It is also known as Lamb's succory, and Swine's chicory.

Pusilla is Latin (very small, tiny, puny) meaning 'very small or dwarf'.

In the past herbalists used to recommend the root as a tonic and a laxative.