

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

---

Cajanus

Leguminosae

[Fabaceae/Papilionaceae]

Cajanus is a corruption of a local Malay name for Angola pea, katjan (Cajanus cajan).

Members of this family absorb nitrogen from the air. Through the bacterial nodules on their deep growing roots, they will introduce nitrogen to the soil (and aerate it) to the benefit of neighbouring plants and any following them in the same soil.