

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

---

Cynara

Compositae

[Asteraceae]

Cynara is derived for some authorities from Greek cyno- (dog) component with reference to a perceived likeness of the spiny, leaf-like bracts around the flowers to dog's teeth. Other authorities have noted a classical Latin name cinara (artichoke).