

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

Cynoglossum germanicum

[Synonyms : Cynoglossum montanum]

GREEN HOUND'S-TONGUE is an annual or biennial. Native to northern Europe it has small, bluish-purple to reddish-violet flowers.

It is also known as Green leaf hound's tongue, and Tafod u Bytheiad Gwyrdd-ddail (Welsh).

It is viewed as an endangered species in the wild in Britain under the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981.

Germanicum means 'of or from Germany'.