

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

Davallia canariensis

HARE’S-FOOT FERN is a semi-evergreen fern. Native to the Canary Islands and the southwestern Mediterranean, it has triangular, feathery green fronds.

It is also known as Canary Island hare’s-foot fern, Davallie kanárská (Czech), Deer’s-foot fern, and Rabbit’s-foot fern.

Canariensis means ‘of or from the Canary Islands’.