

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

Erica erigena

[Synonyms : Erica hibernica, Erica mediterranea]

IRISH HEATH is an evergreen shrub. Native to western Europe (especially Ireland) it has tiny and sweetly-scented, pinkish-red flowers.

It is also known as Mediterranean heath.

Erigena means 'of or from Ireland'.