

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

Freesia x kewensis

[Synonyms : Freesia x hybrida]

FREESIA is a bulbous cultivated perennial. Its close relatives are native to South Africa (particularly the Cape) and it has sweetly fragrant flowers of many colours.

Kewensis means ‘of or from the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew (England)’.

It is understood that this is a parent of all the familiar, brightly coloured, fragrant cultivated varieties available today.