

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

---

Marrubium

Labiatae

[Lamiaceae]

Marrubium is derived for some authorities from the name of a very old Italian town, Maria Urbs. For others it is a classical Latin name for a white horehound cough remedy, and for yet others it comes from Hebrew marrob (bitter juice).