Murraya

Rutaceae

Murraya commemorates a Swedish physician and botanist, Johan Andreas Murray (1740-1791), who after studying at Uppsala under Carolus Linnaeus (1707-1778). moved to Germany. He became a professor of botany and medicine at Göttingen and was director of the botanical garden there from 1769. His published works include Apparatus medicaminum tam simplicium quam praeparatorum et compositorum in praxeos adjumentum consideratus.
