

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

---

Pelargonium tomentosum

PEPPERMINT GERANIUM is an evergreen perennial. Native to South Africa it has strongly peppermint scented leaves (when bruised) and small white flowers.

It is also known as Peppermint-scented geranium, Peppermint-scented pelargonium, Pfefferminzgeranie (German), and Woolly geranium.

Tomentosum means ‘densely woolly, hairy or matted hairy’.