

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

Physoplexis comosa

[Synonyms : Phyteuma comosum]

DEVIL'S CLAW is a perennial. Native to the European Alps it has small, blackish-violet tipped, white to pale and deep blue flowers with conspicuous protruding stamens. It is also known as Great devil's claw, Rampion, and Schopf-Teufelskralle (German). Comosa means 'tufted'.