

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

Thymus herba-barona

CARAWAY THYME is an evergreen subshrub. Native to Sardinia and Corsica it has pale pink flowers.

It is also known as Kümmelthymian (German), and Seed-cake thyme.

Herba-barona is a Corsican name for this species with reference to its past use as a flavouring for barons of beef.