

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

Vaccinium

Ericaceae

Vaccinium is a Latin name for blueberry (Vaccinium myrtillus).

The use of similar common names for the bilberry and others of the 150-odd species in this group of plants (which includes for instance cranberry and cowberry) has led to such confusion that authorities state it is extremely difficult to trace plant history back much further than the 16th Century with any certainty.