

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

---

Verbena

Verbenaceae

Verbena is derived from herba bona (good plant) a term used for ‘altar plants’ including great mullein (Verbascum thapsus), and is Latin (sacred bough of olive, laurel etc.). It should be noted that these plants do not have a lemon scent and should not be confused with lemon verbena (Aloysia triphylla).