

You are viewing one of thousands of biographies – click below for more, including Search box and access to Plant associated organisations.

Plant Biographies

Bibliography

---

Viola

Violaceae

Viola is derived from Greek ion (violet) and is a Latin name for 'violet or hoary stock (Matthiola incana) or other scented flower such as wallflower (Erysimum cheiri)'. Illinois in the United States adopted a purple violet of indeterminate species as a state emblem in 1908.